

AIDF Washington DC 21-22 May

Aid & International Development Forum STAND 904

The forum is open and FREE to the public.

The Hippo Water Roller Project has been invited to exhibit at AIDF Washington DC next week Tuesday and Wednesday, 21-22 May. If you are in Washington or nearby, feel welcome to visit and meet us at Stand 904.

 We are in Washington DC and New York from 19 - 29 May and would love to meet with you. Please email grant.gibbs@hipporoller.org to set up a meeting.

On Tuesday May 28 we will be visiting the Grace Epiphany Church in Philadelphia to discuss support for the 67.67 Hippo Water Roller Challenge which seeks to increase Hippo water roller distribution for International Mandela Day on 18 July 2013.

Thank you for your continued support.

Grant Gibbs

VISIT STAND 904

The overarching theme for Washington DC is 'Millennium Development Goals Where do we go after 2015?'

Preview the showguide online.

Copyright © 2013 The Hippo Water Roller Project, All rights reserved.

Washington DC is 'Millennium Development Goals Where do we go after 2015?'

In 2012, AIDF attracted over 1,700 representatives from UN, NGO, governmental organizations and the private sector.